◆ Korean Buddhism and Tea Ceremony (13 Nov 15:00~19:00, US$83 per person)

Tour description

Through this cultural experience tour, you will learn and practice how to enjoy Dado(tea ceremony) at either Geumgangs Temple or Beomeosa Temple. Don't miss participating in a Korean tea ceremony(Dado), with tea prepared from tea leaves in a traditional tea set, in keeping with the Seon(or Zen) mediation practiced in Buddhism.

Daseonilmi is often mentioned, implying the same result from tea-drinking and practicing Seon(searching for one's true self). This meditation constitutes the core of Korean Buddhist traditions. Participants can find their true self. Come back home richer at heart, more fully alive, more fully awake more fully at peace.

Gumgangs Temple is nestled at the foot of Mt.Guemjeongsan, it boast the scenic landscape with pine and bamboo trees leading to the entrance gate of this temple. Found in the 7th century, Beomeosa Temple is one of Korea's largest Buddhist temples with an abundance of cultural and historical assets. After enjoying dinner at local restaurant, transfer back to Paradise Hotel.

◆ Historic Journey To Gyeongju (11 Nov 09:00~17:00, US$125 per person)

Tour description

Depart from Paradise Hotel and take a scenic drive to Gyeongju, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Served as the capital of ancient Silla Dynasty for a thousand years, the entire city of Gyeongju is a living museum containing remnants of the Silla Dynasty as well as relics pertaining to Buddhism, the national religion at the time.

Upon arrival in Gyeongju, first visit the Bulguksa Temple. This is a great Bulguksa temple combining superb architectural design, traditional Buddhist spirit, and the surrounding natural scenic beauty symbolizes Buddha's Land on earth. The Bulguksa Temple was designated as a World Cultural asset by UNESCO in 1995. After lunch at local restaurant, travel to Tumuli park which contains 23 of the more than 200 royal tombs that were found in Gyeongju. You will be able to visit inside the "Flying Horse Tomb," to see how these huge projects were constructed.

Next, The Gyeongju National Museum, a treasure house of Silla Kingdom's one thousand year culture, has been loved by Korean people and has attracted great interest from people all over the world. Recently, we have opened the Art Hall and renovated the Archaeology Hall, the Anapji Hall and the Special Exhibition Hall. So far, we have been concentrating on expansion of the hardware: improving the galleries and other facilities for visitors' convenience. After tour, return to Paradise Hotel.

Tour Course

◆ Shopping and JUMP Performance Tour (12 Nov 16:00~22:00, US$73 per person)

Tour description

Transfer to downtown Busan to enjoy shopping at Lotte Duty Free.

It is Korea's largest duty free shop and stocks a large variety of brands. After dinner at local restaurant, you will enjoy the representative Korean hit show 'JUMP', a non-verbal performance that captures the inherent excitement of martial arts.

The comic-action story is set around a family and the thieves that break into their house. This Dynamic show combines the traditional Korean martial arts of Taekwondo and Taekgyeon, with incredible gymnastics skills in a comical style. Beauty and freedom coming from advanced movements of the body will captivate you with excitement. After show, return to Paradise Hotel.
