

ISAF Policy on the Reproduction of the Racing Rules of Sailing

ISAF has granted rights over use of the Racing Rules of Sailing 2001-2004, 2005-2008 as follows:

1. Ownership - ISAF is the owner of the Racing Rules of Sailing and has the right to publish the Racing Rules of Sailing and the exclusive rights to publish the Racing Rules of Sailing on the internet and the rights to all derivative works.

2. ISAF will license the use of the Racing Rules of Sailing as below:

(a) Rights granted to MNA's

(i) ISAF has automatically without fee licensed MNA's the right to use and publish the Racing Rules of Sailing within their territory.

(ii) ISAF has also automatically without fee granted MNA's the right to permit clubs affiliated to each MNA to use part or whole of the Racing Rules of Sailing for non-commercial use amongst the club's members.

(b) Commercial Publication

Any organization, other than MNA's, that wishes to use part or whole of the Racing Rules of Sailing in a commercial publication will be charged a royalty fee by ISAF which will be a percentage of the retail price of the publication.

For more information about Royalty Fees contact the ISAF Secretariat – www.sailing.org/contactus.