- Technical representative for WS:
  - The World Secretary usually plays this role, although on occasions other people from the class who are focusing on a specific question will also become involved in discussions with WS.

Names of Official Measurers:
None at present

Names of International Measurers:
None at present

Number of International Measurers:
None at present

Class Equipment Inspection Seminars:
- We use one-on-one training rather than symposia, seminars, etc, as we find it more efficient for teaching new measurers, given especially that with fairly brief and open class rules, we do not need a large number of measurers anyway and most measurement is straightforward.
