

PRESCRIPTIONS of the Royal Netherlands Yachting Union (RNYU)

Rule 5

The Dutch Doping Regulation of the RNYU applies for all events under the jurisdiction of the RNYU.

Rule 46

A responsible person who has his domicile in the Netherlands shall have a valid racing license or event license, issued by or in the name of the RNYU. The race committee shall verify this requirement. If this requirement is not fulfilled the race committee shall reject or cancel the entry of the boat in accordance with rule 76.1 or the race committee shall protest the boat.

Rule 47

With exception of the responsible person every other person on board, who has his domicile in the Netherlands, shall have a valid crew license, event crew license, racing license or event license, issued by or in name of the RNYU. The race committee shall verify this requirement. If this requirement is not fulfilled the entry of the boat shall be rejected or cancelled in accordance with rule 76.1 or the race committee shall protest the boat.

Rule 67

Damages

- a. Every issue of liability or claim for damages arising from an incident while a boat is bound by The Racing Rules of Sailing shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the court and not considered by a protest committee.
- b. A boat that takes a penalty or retires does not thereby admit liability for damages or that he has broken a rule.
- c. A goal of the rules is avoiding contact. By participating in an event under the rules a boat accepts that the responsibility for damages occurred by breaking a rule will be based on guilt caused by applying the rules and not on accepting the risks.

Rule 69.2

In addition to this rule the protest committee shall report every warning or penalty under rule 69.2(j) to the Appeals Committee of the RNYU.

Rule 70.5

Approval of the RNYU is required for denying the right of appeal if this is necessary for reasons stated in rule 70.5(a).

The approval for either rule 70.5(a) or rule 70.5(b) shall be posted on the official notice board of the event. However, the denial of appeal shall not apply to a party to a hearing under rule 69.2, Misconduct, but the decision of the protest committee shall determine the results of the event.

Rule 78.1

The race committee shall verify that a participating boat has a valid certificate, according to the class rules.

If a boat does not fulfill this requirement, with exception of what is mentioned in rule 78.2, his entry shall be rejected or cancelled according to rule 76.1, or the race committee shall protest the boat.

Rule 86.3

An organizing authority wishing to develop or test alternative racing rules shall obtain prior approval from the RNYU. This approval shall be included in the notice of race and published on the official notice board. The organizing authority shall promptly report the results of the development or test to the RNYU.

Rule 88.2

It is not permitted that Sailing Instructions contain changes to the Prescriptions of the RNYU or prescribe that they do not apply, without prior written permission of the RNYU.

Regel 92

At least one of the members of the Technical Committee shall have an official recognition as measurer or equipment inspector issued by World Sailing or the RNYU and shall give proof if required. The race committee shall assist the technical committee by requiring that boats, which are to be controlled, to report to the mentioned place without delay. If no technical committee is appointed, the RNYU has the right to appoint a technical committee. A copy of the application in writing shall be published on the official noticeboard of the event.

Rule G1

Unless prescribed otherwise in the class rules, the rules G1.1(a), G1.1(c), G1.2 and G1.3 (as far as applicable) also apply for the by the RNYU recognized national classes.
