

World Sailing Judicial Board Role Description

World Sailing is now recruiting for members of its independent Judicial Board. The Board serve a critical governance role within World Sailing, ensuring the independence of its judicial processes.

Judicial Board

The Judicial Board has overall administrative oversight of the disciplinary system of World Sailing and ensures that all investigatory and disciplinary functions are carried out by appropriate persons or panels. Members of the Board do not investigate or hear cases themselves but are responsible for guaranteeing the independence and integrity of the system and for overseeing the administration of, and appointments to, the judicial system. The full terms of reference of the Board can be found here.

Applicants for the Judicial Board should have significant legal experience, preferably in the field of sports law or in regulatory or disciplinary proceedings. Experience of sailing is desirable but applications from outside the sport are welcomed.

World Sailing is seeking to appoint 3 members to the Board at this time. For information on how to apply, please see below.

Commitment

The Board carry out most of their work electronically or by conference. All roles are voluntary, however in the event that attendance at meetings or other travel is required, World Sailing will pay all reasonable expenses incurred.

How to Apply

To apply, please send the following by email to office@sailing.org no later than 31 March 2021:

- a letter of application highlighting your motivation for the role and setting out your expertise and experience;
- a full Curriculum Vitae (not exceeding 3 pages);
- contact details including address (work and home), telephone numbers (including mobile) and email address; and
- full contact details of two referees. Please note that referees will only be contacted after prior consultation with you. It is the candidate's responsibility to ensure that referees are willing to provide a reference if contacted by World Sailing.

Applications will be considered by the World Sailing Board, which will then make a recommendation to the World Sailing Council. It is anticipated that any appointments will be made in late May 2021 and the term of office runs until approximately the middle of 2025.
