Please note:

- The closure periods for Board meetings. Board meetings which consider Proposals to go to the following Council meeting are indicated with a "+".
- Proposals to change the OSR first need to be considered by the Special Regulations Subcommittee ("SRSC"). Once the SRSC have considered a Proposal it goes to the Oceanic and Offshore Committee ("OOC") for decision. A minimum of six weeks is required for SRSC to consider a Proposal. A further two weeks are required between an SRSC recommendation and an OOC decision.
